

Waiver & Registration for NPower Services Activities

This is a Consent / Waiver Form for any NPower Services activity including but not limited to Geauga Joggers & Walkers; RockAbility; Adaptive CrossFit; Volunteer Inclusion Activities; Employment and Employability Skill-building and Job Placement; Entrepreneur's Corner; Project: Kindness or other activities aimed at increasing integration among people with disabilities and typical peers. This form acknowledges that either I, myself, or my dependent (ie, son / daughter) agrees to participate in a voluntary exercise, music, artistic or other skill-building or quality-of-life program.

This is a waiver of injury as well as a consent to use photographs of participants for promotional purposes. It is up to participants to inform the photographer and / or avoid being photographed if they do not want their images to be used.

Some gatherings may include food or beverages. Participants with food allergies are responsible to avoid anything that could cause an unwanted reaction. Participants and guardians understand that NPower Services is not liable for any injuries that may occur while participating in these activities.

NPower Services does not pay or compensate people for participating in any activity; clients should not have any expectation of payment for participation.

Meetings will be canceled due to poor or unsafe weather conditions; it is up to participants to check email, phones or social media outlets for updates regarding cancellations. Participants are responsible for their own safety and transportation.

Fitness-related activities including Geauga Joggers & Walkers and Adaptive CrossFit: Walks and runs will occur on trails or sidewalks which may be uneven. Fitness classes will be held in a working gym alongside of regularly scheduled classes. Exercise often assumes the risk of injury, though care is taken to minimize risks. People with extraordinary needs must provide a caregiver. Please ensure that proper clothing and shoes are worn. NPower Services is not liable for any injuries sustained before, during or upon egress from these activities. Participants will not receive compensation for participating.

RockAbility and other music or arts events: Musicians with disabilities collaborate at weekly RockAbility rehearsals with typical musicians. The majority of these practices will occur at Metzenbaum Center (8200 Cedar Road / Chesterland, Ohio 44026), but occasionally some rehearsals may be at different sites. Additionally, small ensembles will perform at existing open-mics, jams, and coffee shops. Other music activities including Drum Circles may be held at various locations. NPower Services may hold other activities that involve art supplies (paints, oils, pastels, brushes, putty knives and other tools). NPower Services is not liable for any injuries sustained before, during or upon egress from these activities. Participants will not receive compensation for participating.

Waiver & Registration for NPower Services Activities

Other activities: NPower Services is always looking for skill-building and socialization opportunities related to athletics, the arts, volunteering, employment, and entrepreneurship and will offer such activities as is feasible. Participants in these activities are responsible for their own safety and transportation. Participants will not receive compensation for participating.

Regarding COVID, we will follow the existing guidelines that have been set forth by the governor and the county.
